About IIM Indore

Established in 1996, the Indian Institute of Management, Indore, is the sixth addition to the prestigious IIM family of management schools. Indore was chosen to host the school to give an impetus to management education in Central India and since then, the institute has pioneered various initiatives in the field of management interfacing with the industry, government sectors, and PSUs. The essence of management, IIM Indore believes, lies in managing one's own ambitions and forging ahead consciously. "A Strong theoretical foundation is the basis of good corporate practice". IIM Indore offers a range of programmes such as the PGP, IPM (Integrated five year Programme), EPGP (for experienced professionals), PGPMX (for working executives, from Mumbai campus), GMPE (for working executives, from Indore campus), besides various management development programmes on both online and physical mode.

The FPM and the EFPM Programme are the two doctoral programmes of the institute.

Vision

- ♦ To evolve as a contextually relevant business school with world class academic standards.
- ♦ To propagate, assimilate and develop contemporary innovative management practices and systems to contribute to social capitalism in India.
- ♦ To illustrate and experience the uniqueness of embedding a business school in a social science setting.
- ♦ To have a dominant presence in all segments of management education in India and abroad.

Mission

IIM Indore seeks to be a contextually-relevant business school with world-class academic standards that develops socially-conscious managers, leaders and entrepreneurs. IIM Indore is committed to:

- ♦ Excellence in management education, research, and training.
- ♦ Use of contemporary participant-centric pedagogies and teaching methods.
- ♦ A presence in emerging segments of management education.

EFPMG at IIMI

The Executive Fellow Programme in Management and Governance (EFPMG) is a unique doctoral programme for working Senior Officers in the Indian Administrative Services and Indian Armed Forces. Initiated in 2021, the program is one of the first such programs for officers offered by an IIM, which culminates with a PhD degree in management. The programme offers a rigorous course work and opportunity to pursue research in the guidance of some of the best management researchers. IIM Indore currently has one of the biggest cohorts of doctoral candidates (more than 162 across both its doctoral programmes) in the management domain in the country. The programme is expected to enable IIM Indore to contribute to effective governance of the country and nation-building. Also, it will leverage the experience and capability of the country's civil servants, army officers and public managers', while building their capability, and making them research inclined.

Areas of Specialization

The institute presently offers EFPMG in the following areas of specialization:

- * Communication
- * Economics
- * Finance & Accounting
- * Humanities and Social Sciences
- * Information Systems (Information Systems Management, Emerging technologies, and Data Science or Analytics)
- * Marketing Management
- * Operations Management and Quantitative Techniques (Operations Management, Operations Research, Statistics and Mathematics)
- * Organizational Behaviour and Human Resource Management
- * Strategic Management (Strategic Management, International Business and Entrepreneurship)

These specializations mean that the dissertation should be anchored in one of these areas, with implications for governance. Out of the aforementioned areas, an applicant can apply one area of specialization and submit their application along with all attachments as mentioned in the on-line Application Form. Candidates are encouraged to check the research profiles of the faculty at IIMI to understand their research interests and specializations.

Selection Process for EFPMG 2023

The candidates who satisfy the academic eligibility criteria (see below) can submit their application online. Candidates will be shortlisted based on their academic eligibility, the Research Aptitude Test (RAT) and personal interview (PI). The RAT will test candidates on quantitative ability, verbal ability and research aptitude. RAT will be conducted on June 24, 2023. The shortlisted candidates from the RAT will be invited for PI, to be conducted by IIM Indore on June 24, 2023. The successful candidates will be made an offer to join the programme tentatively scheduled to start by mid-July 2023.

All matters pertaining to admission into the EFPMG at IIM Indore is governed by the decisions taken by the Admissions Committee. Application Procedure is available on the website.
